

Surely God is my help; the Lord is the one who sustains me. Psalm 54:4

Here David is asking God to save him from ruthless, godless men who are attacking and trying to kill him.

Who else could know what all we need, when we need it and what is best for us? Whether we are struggling with finances, bad health, family issues or work, He asks us to call on Him. Unfortunately, we don't always get the answer we want and sometimes have difficulty accepting where God has put us. Then somewhere down the road, God's decision for us becomes perfectly clear, and we give Him our thanks and praise for not granting that request. 1 Corinthians 13:12 reads, now we see but a poor reflection as in a mirror; then we will see face to face (New International Version). This verse indicates that some day we will see God's purpose in our difficulty. Meanwhile, faith brings us some measure of peace. Our peace is not in our circumstances but in God who is behind the circumstances. This peace is found in Him who lovingly rules over all things.

What decision of God's have you questioned and not fully accepted?

How have you seen God's continuous support for you? How has He sustained you?
